

Justin Allan Kimball is an actor, choreographer and sketch comedian in Chicago. He is the owner and choreographer of Comedy Dance Chicago. A company that has been featured at Choreographers Carnival, Second City Chicago, iOChicago, Metropolis Theater and various other venues. He is also a touring company member of Theater Unspeakable, which was featured at Lincoln Center, NY.

He was most recently found touring the world and performing a one man production, "The Ned Show"

For the past 8 years he has taught jazz, hip hop, breakdancing and musical theater dance at DLD Dance Company and is SO excited to join the Momentum family!
LETS GO!