

Diamond's love for dance began in Elkhart, Indiana where he trained in hip hop at Concord Dance Studio. During this time, Diamond also trained with Tremaine Dance Company under Joe Tremaine's company teachers Megan Sanett, Marty dew and Tony Bellissimo among others as a company member, later earning his BFA in contemporary dance at Indiana University. Mr. Burdine joined Chicago Dance Crash as the 2019 performing apprentice and was promoted to the full company in 2020.
